Special Veterans Day programming will be offered on Monday, Nov. 11.

Tickets are available through Colonial Williamsburg's "Honoring Service to America" program, made possible once again by a generous $150,000 grant from The Home Depot Foundation as part of its ongoing commitment to improving the homes and lives of U.S. military veterans and their families. Since 2015, the program has distributed nearly 59,000 tickets to military families.

In addition to offering military families free admission, Colonial Williamsburg will host a Veterans Day Proclamation in partnership with the Williamsburg Chapter of the Sons of the American Revolution on Palace Green on Monday, Nov. 11, at 10 a.m. A Veterans Day Salute & Procession will kick off at 3:30 p.m. on Nov. 11 beginning at the Capitol Circle and concluding with a commemoration ceremony behind the Courthouse on Market Square. The day will conclude with "Salute to the Heros," a bagpipe performance from the roof deck of the Governor's Palace at 4:40 p.m.

During their visit, retired and active military personnel and their families are invited to visit the Liberty Lounge, located in the Historic Area directly behind the Millinery on East Duke of Gloucester Street, for complimentary refreshments and the company of fellow service men and women. The Liberty Lounge has welcomed more than 220,000 service members and their families since opening in 2016.

Free “Honoring Service to America” single-day passes are available at all onsite ticket locations with proper ID. Minor dependents must be accompanied by an adult, and dependents ages 10 and over must present a valid dependent ID. Service members need not be present for qualifying guests to receive free “Honoring Service to America” tickets, which are provided to dependent family members of currently deployed troops with appropriate identification. Veterans who separated before retirement can bring a copy of their honorable discharge paperwork, form DD 214, as identification of service. Colonial Williamsburg is also proud to offer military discounts on Colonial Williamsburg hotels, dining, retail, golf and spa services.
