SPECIAL EVENTS

Live from Williamsburg:
A Restoration Radio Play

Premiere Friday, Nov. 13 at 7:00 $15/10
Tuesdays in the Holiday Season at 4:00

The debut of this new program imagines three radio broadcasts from landmark years of 1928, 1937, and 1946 as Williamsburg shifts from small town to national destination told the way it was often told at the time. Live, over the air. Part play, part variety show, it features period music, live sound effects and the electricity of room full of people who know they're in the midst of something special. (60 minutes)

Hornets, Snakes, and Religious Freedom

November 9 at 6:00

Before the American Revolution, the Anglican Church was the established church of Virginia, the largest and most populous of the English colonies. The Revolution changed all that.

Dr. Ragosta will discuss the relatively unknown role of Virginia's religious dissenters both in winning the American Revolution and in establishing religious liberty, including a strict separation of church and state. Free admission. (60 minutes)
